L.L.C. announces the signing of Terry D. Yarbrough, Owner, CEO, and President of Advanced Program Analytics, LLC (APA, LLC). His forthcoming title, PROJECT MANAGEMENT: From Certification to Performance, reflects his doctoral research as he completes his Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) in Project Management through Liberty University, with degree completion expected in October 2026.

Mr. Yarbrough is a retired United States Naval Officer with 21 years of active-duty service and more than 25 years of Department of Defense and CMS experience supporting Acquisition Category I, II, III, and Major Automated Information Systems programs. He founded Advanced Program Analytics, LLC in 2013 with a mission to support the U.S. Military and expand opportunities for veterans and their families. Today, APA is staffed by a workforce that is nearly 98 percent veterans, reflecting his commitment to service, mentorship, and community impact.

As CEO, Mr. Yarbrough serves as Program Executive for APA's federal contracts and subcontracts. He manages onsite Program Managers and Team Leads, ensures customer satisfaction and compliance, and directs business development, proposal operations, teaming relationships, and contract management. He is recognized for his expertise in organizational metrics development, analysis, and reporting, including his work with the Office of the Secretary of Defense in improving systems engineering metrics processes.

Mr. Yarbrough holds degrees from Georgetown University, Troy University, Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, and Shelby State Community College. His certifications include Project Management Professional (PMP), PMI Agile Certified Practitioner (PMI-ACP), and ITILv3. He has served on the Board of Governors for the National Military Families Association, demonstrating his enduring commitment to veterans and their families.
