Las Vegas, Nevada Mar 19, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Fremont Street Experience, the iconic entertainment district, is turning back time with a throwback 90s House Party powered by Mix 94.1. The 90s House Party takes place April 4 at 6 p.m., inviting guests to experience the sights and sounds of the decade through immersive entertainment, free live performances and interactive activations.

The event launches new Music Reels featuring legendary bands Blink-182 and Red Hot Chili Peppers on The Canopy™. It also marks the premiere of Fremont Films, a new interactive content category designed to actively engage guests and encourage real-time participation. The party extends across three stages with live performances by alt-rock favorite Deep Blue Something and high-flying BMX tricks and stunts from Off Axis Stunt Show.

Guests are encouraged to arrive in '90s-inspired attire to unlock exclusive SlotZilla deals. Additionally, the street will feature immersive '90s-inspired activations, from custom airbrush and iron-on patch stations to nostalgic photo opportunities.

“The 90s House Party marks the beginning of an exciting new series of themed events at Fremont Street Experience,” said Cliff Atkinson, President and CEO of Fremont Street Experience. “By combining immersive entertainment, new canopy content and live music with interactive guest experiences, we’re creating unique celebrations that bring different eras and cultures to life in downtown Las Vegas.”

The 90s House Party is the first of several themed events taking over Fremont Street Experience as it expands its programming this year to include more engaging activations designed for all guests.

Additional themed events and activations will be announced soon. Guests are encouraged to stay connected through Fremont Street Experience’s social media channels and website for the latest updates.
