Marie A. Enderle Combines Four Decades of Expertise with a Passion for Community Service

Lawrence, Indiana Mar 24, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Grace Consulting and Construction Services, LLC, a prominent construction and real estate consulting firm, is proud to announce its commitment to providing exceptional service and strategic guidance under the leadership of owner and manager, Marie A. Enderle. With over 40 years of experience in construction, facilities management, and real estate operations, Enderle is poised to help clients navigate the complexities of property development, construction management, and long-term planning.

Marie Enderle's journey began in mechanical engineering, where she gained valuable insights into critical infrastructure at a consulting firm. Her career has since flourished, leading her to collaborate with Fortune 500 companies, hospitals, and data centers, honing her skills in infrastructure systems and large-scale operations. Following a successful corporate career that culminated in leadership roles overseeing global real estate portfolios, Enderle decided to establish her own consulting practice to continue making an impact in her community.

At Grace Consulting and Construction Services, Enderle specializes in various areas, including commercial consulting, strategic planning, construction management, facilities management, and real estate portfolio management. Her approach emphasizes collaboration, ensuring that clients receive tailored solutions that align with their unique needs and goals. Whether it's developing project scopes or evaluating properties, Enderle's extensive background equips her to tackle even the most complex construction and renovation initiatives.

"I find immense joy in serving the Lawrenceburg community. It's a place where families stay connected, and neighbors support one another," said Enderle. She is actively involved in local initiatives, including her role as Board Chair for the North Dearborn Pantry, where she helps strengthen community ties through service.

Enderle credits her success to her unwavering faith in God, determination, and a mindset focused on overcoming challenges. "With persistence and confidence, I believe any challenge can be met with a solution," she stated.

As Grace Consulting and Construction Services continues to grow, Marie A. Enderle remains dedicated to empowering clients, fostering community connections, and sharing her knowledge with emerging professionals in the field. Through her work, she aims to create lasting value for clients and contribute to the thriving community of Lawrenceburg, Indiana.
