

Irish Author Caoimhe Lawlor Announces Her New Release of her Children’s Book “Whisperings in the Wind”

San Francisco, California Mar 20, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - An enchanting debut blending magic, community, and environmental care

Irish author and poet Caoimhe Lawlor is set to delight readers of all ages with her new release of Whisperings in the Wind. Rich in imagination and heart, the story is a whimsical adventure that seamlessly weaves the everyday world with the fragile magic of a fairy realm in peril.

Inspired by Ireland's storytelling tradition and landscape, the book invites readers into a world where the ordinary lives of goats collide with an extraordinary mission. As courage is tested and unexpected friendships are formed, the story unfolds as a celebration of loyalty, community, and quiet heroism.

What truly sets Whisperings in the Wind apart is its thoughtful exploration of environmental stewardship, community responsibility, and the unseen magic in the world around us. Lawlor's prose is light and imaginative, offering more than a fantasy adventure, it is a story about believing in the impossible and protecting what is sacred, even when the odds feel daunting.

A lifelong scribbler and daydreamer, Caoimhe Lawlor is Irish and lives in County Donegal. Passionate about Ireland, its people, stories, and culture, she has previously published poetry and is also an avid photographer.

In keeping with the book's themes of care and compassion, 5% of the sale price of Whisperings in the Wind will be donated to Focus Ireland, a national housing and homelessness organisation working to end child homelessness. Family homelessness in Ireland continues to rise, with over 5,000 children currently living in temporary accommodation. Homelessness disproportionately affects children, disrupting their education, friendships, mental health, and long-term wellbeing. Focus Ireland supports families in rebuilding their lives and securing stable homes but they cannot do it alone.
