Jan Warner Ramey: Your Trusted Salesperson/REALTOR® in Hurricane, West Virginia, Dedicated to Exceptional Client Service

Hurricane, West Virginia Mar 12, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Jan Warner Ramey, a dedicated REALTOR® with RE/MAX Clarity in Hurricane, West Virginia, is proud to announce her commitment to helping buyers, sellers, and investors navigate the real estate landscape with confidence and ease. With an active real estate license in West Virginia, Jan is known for her unwavering focus on her clients' best interests, guiding them through every phase of the transaction from initial negotiations to contract completion.

As a lifelong resident of Putnam County, Jan offers unparalleled local insight and strong community ties. Having lived in the area for over forty years, she understands the unique dynamics of the local real estate market, which allows her to provide her clients with accurate and timely information. Jan believes that real estate is fundamentally about serving people at every stage of life and meeting them where they are. Whether she is welcoming newcomers to the area, assisting first-time homebuyers, working with military families, or helping to sell executive homes and estates, Jan approaches each client with compassion and empathy. She aims to ensure her client's overall goals are achieved. And, with strong negotiation skills, she is able to navigate and lead her clients through the most challenging ventures.

In addition to her real estate expertise, Jan brings over two decades of experience with new construction and renovations, gained through her partnership with her husband in their construction business. In addition, they have built a rental portfolio of over 100 residential and commercial properties, which she manages in her spare time. This hands-on experience allows her to provide invaluable insights into the buying and selling process, helping clients make informed decisions while ensuring a supportive and rewarding experience.

Jan's success is grounded in her core values of honesty, integrity, and a strong work ethic, complemented by meticulous attention to detail. She is passionate about helping her clients navigate crucial real estate decisions, making it her mission to add value throughout the entire process.

When she's not working, Jan enjoys an active lifestyle with her family, engaging in outdoor activities such as basketball, boating, biking, hiking, and camping. She is also deeply committed to her community, volunteering as a coach, supporting faith-based initiatives, and contributing to projects like Habitat for Humanity and Backpack Buddies, which provide essential resources for local families.
