Kelly Higgins: A Leading REALTOR® Transforming Real Estate in Fairfield County

Fairfield, Connecticut Mar 30, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Kelly Higgins, a distinguished REALTOR® and Team Lead of the Kelly Higgins Team at Coldwell Banker Realty, is making waves in the real estate market of Fairfield County, Connecticut. With over 20 years of dedicated experience, Kelly leads a highly regarded, award-winning group recognized with the International President's Elite Award and ranked among the top small teams in the industry. Her commitment to her clients and her deep understanding of the real estate market set her apart as a trusted advisor for buyers and sellers alike.

Kelly's journey in real estate began after a successful 15-year tenure as a real estate paralegal in Stamford, where she gained invaluable knowledge of contracts, legal processes, and closing procedures. This foundation has equipped her to navigate the complexities of real estate transactions effectively. Additionally, her family's construction and renovation business provides her with unique insights into property conditions, design trends, and long-term investment value.

"Every transaction is an opportunity to build lasting relationships," says Kelly. "It is my job and my pleasure to navigate you through the process of your sale or purchase. You can always be assured of my dedication and professionalism throughout the journey, treating every transaction with the same enthusiasm and tireless energy, whether it's a starter home, luxury property, or anything in between."

The Kelly Higgins Team serves a diverse clientele throughout Fairfield County, including communities such as Fairfield, Easton, Westport, Trumbull, Monroe, Redding, Weston, Stamford, Shelton, Norwalk, Bridgeport, and Milford. Their expertise spans various property types, including residential, luxury, land, and new construction. Known for their professionalism and strong market knowledge, the team employs innovative marketing strategies and offers strategic guidance to help clients navigate the real estate market with confidence.

In addition to her professional success, Kelly is deeply committed to her community, actively supporting organizations like Habitat for Humanity and The Scouts. Her involvement reflects her dedication to giving back and strengthening the neighborhoods she serves. She takes great pride in seeing her clients thrive in their new homes and become part of the fabric of the community.

When she isn't busy closing deals, Kelly enjoys fly fishing and cherishing quality time with her husband, five sons, and two dogs. Her strong ties to Fairfield County fuel her passion for real estate and community engagement.
