

Kim Rohal Joins SVN International as a Dynamic Force in Commercial Portfolio Management

Bringing Expertise and Passion for Property Value Enhancement to Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania Mar 4, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - SVN International proudly announces the appointment of Kim Rohal as a Commercial Portfolio Property Manager. In her new role, Kim is committed to enhancing operational efficiency, fostering strong tenant relations, and driving long-term portfolio performance. With a results-driven mindset, she is poised to make a significant impact in the management of commercial assets.

Since stepping into her role, Kim has showcased her passion for delivering measurable results and strengthening property value through strategic oversight and proactive management. Her comprehensive experience spans every phase of property management, enabling her to navigate the complexities of overseeing renovations, coordinating large-scale build-outs, and managing intricate projects across state lines. Kim's well-rounded expertise allows her to approach each asset with both a strategic perspective and a hands-on approach, ensuring that every detail is meticulously managed.

Kim is a proud alumna of the University of Pittsburgh, where she earned a Bachelor of Science, cum laude, in Psychology and Studio Arts. This unique educational background equips her with strong interpersonal skills and creative problem-solving abilities—key assets in the realm of property management. To further bolster her professional credentials, Kim has earned her Project Management Professional designation from the Project Management Institute and completed her Licensed Community Association Manager certification through the Bob Hogue School of Real Estate. These accomplishments reflect her unwavering commitment to excellence in project execution and property operations.

“My success in the property management sector is attributed to my comprehensive hands-on experience,” Kim states. “I've had the opportunity to oversee complex build-outs, manage out-of-state renovations, and even relocate entire residential structures. This diverse experience enables me to tackle challenges head-on and find innovative solutions that enhance property value.”

In her role at SVN International, Kim specializes in property management, commercial portfolio management, and property operations. Her dedication to fostering strong tenant relationships while ensuring operational efficiency positions her as a valuable asset to the SVN team and the Pittsburgh commercial real estate market.
