Certified Nursing Assistant at St. John's Hospital, Camarillo, Combines Compassion, Clinical Skill, and Lifelong Learning

Oxnard, California Mar 6, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Mabel Adobea Okyere, CNA, HHA, ACLS, CPR, CPC, CMB (Certification Pending), is a dedicated healthcare professional and aspiring registered nurse currently serving as a Certified Nursing Assistant at St. John's Hospital, Camarillo, within the Dignity Health system. Since beginning her healthcare career in 2018 in Ghana, Mabel has built a strong foundation in patient-centered care grounded in compassion, precision, and adaptability.

In her current role, Mabel provides hands-on support to patients, assisting with activities of daily living, monitoring vital signs, and ensuring patient safety and comfort—particularly during overnight shifts. Her calm presence and attention to detail help create a healing environment where patients feel supported, respected, and valued. Drawing from her international experience and diverse clinical exposure, she approaches every patient interaction with empathy and professionalism.

Mabel holds multiple certifications and licenses, including Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA), Home Health Aide (HHA), Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support (ACLS) certification, and CPR Provider. She has completed medical billing and coding training, with CPC and CMB certification currently pending, demonstrating her commitment to expanding her expertise in both clinical and administrative healthcare.

She is actively advancing her education by completing nursing prerequisites at Los Angeles Mission College. Her long-term professional goals include becoming a registered nurse and eventually a physician—combining clinical excellence with a deep understanding of healthcare systems and administration.

Beyond her clinical responsibilities, Mabel is committed to community service and continuous professional growth. She has volunteered at local senior care events through Ventura Training Institute and participated in community service initiatives as an au pair and caregiver. While she has not yet published formal medical research, she remains dedicated to ongoing professional development and stays current with evidence-based practices in patient care.

Mabel also brings a diverse and creative skill set to her professional journey. She is a certified photographer through the Borough of Manhattan Community College and has experience in digital marketing, nutrition, and meal planning. These complementary interests reflect her well-rounded approach to service, blending creativity, organization, and compassion in both healthcare and community settings.

Mabel Adobea Okyere's journey is defined by resilience, determination, and an unwavering passion for improving lives. As she continues to advance her education and expand her impact, she remains committed to delivering thoughtful, high-quality care to every patient she serves.
