Marietta Perkins: A Global Real Estate Advisor with Engel & Völkers in Scottsdale, Arizona

Scottsdale, Arizona Mar 11, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Marietta Perkins serves as a Global Real Estate Advisor with Engel & Völkers in Scottsdale, Arizona. As a dedicated member of the St. John International Team, Marietta is committed to representing buyers and sellers with unwavering integrity and a focus on safeguarding their interests throughout every phase of the real estate transaction.

With an active Arizona real estate license and a reputation for her polished, client-focused approach, Marietta has quickly established herself as a trusted advisor in the competitive real estate market. Her steadfast commitment to exceptional service ensures that clients receive tailored guidance, whether they are first-time homebuyers, seasoned investors, or families seeking their dream home.

Marietta's unique background in financial services, gained during her eight-year tenure at prestigious firms such as Morgan Stanley and UBS, equips her with a robust skill set in wealth management and financial strategy. This experience allows her to navigate the complexities of real estate transactions with a high level of expertise, providing clients with the clarity and confidence needed to make informed decisions.

As a proud Arizona native and graduate of Arizona State University, Marietta possesses a comprehensive understanding of the Valley's diverse neighborhoods and lifestyle offerings. Her keen insight into evolving market trends, combined with her analytical capabilities, ensures that her clients receive not only personalized service but also a competitive edge in their real estate endeavors.

Marietta attributes her success to building meaningful relationships, working alongside a high-performing team with a proven track record, and maintaining strong self-motivation. She credits her late father, Mark Perkins, as her greatest supporter and inspiration, alongside her deep passion for real estate and strong foundation in finance.

Beyond her work with clients, Marietta enjoys traveling, staying active through tennis and yoga, exploring Arizona's dynamic culinary scene, and spending quality time with family and friends. She is also deeply committed to giving back to her community, actively supporting blood cancer initiatives and serving on the Executive Board of the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of Arizona, where she helps advance the organization's mission and expand its impact locally.

With her combination of financial expertise, market knowledge, and dedication to client service, Marietta Perkins continues to raise the standard for real estate advisory in Scottsdale, delivering exceptional results for buyers, sellers, and investors alike.
