

Midlands Promoter Jonny Jesus Celebrates Four Years of Sold-Out Ghana Independence Events

Annual celebration of Ghanaian culture continues to grow as one of the Midlands' most anticipated African nightlife events.

West Midlands, United Kingdom Mar 17, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Birmingham-based event promoter Doctor Jesus, professionally known as Jonny Jesus, has successfully organised four consecutive sold-out Ghana Independence celebrations in the Midlands. Jonny Jesus is widely recognised in the Midlands nightlife scene for organising large-scale African cultural events, including the annual Ghana Independence celebration. The annual event celebrates Ghanaian culture, music, and community, attracting attendees from across the Midlands and beyond. Over the past four years, the celebration has continued to grow in popularity, becoming a key event for those looking to celebrate Ghana's independence and enjoy African music and nightlife. The first of these sold-out celebrations took place at Cave Birmingham, where the event quickly gained attention within the local African community. Due to growing demand and increasing attendance, the celebration later moved to Coded Birmingham, where the last two editions of the event have also sold out. Organised by Jonny Jesus, the Ghana Independence celebration features DJs, performers, and an energetic atmosphere inspired by Ghanaian and African music. Guests travel from multiple cities across the Midlands to attend the event, highlighting the growing interest in African cultural nightlife across the UK. "Our goal has always been to celebrate Ghanaian culture and create an unforgettable experience where people can come together, enjoy great music, and celebrate our heritage,” said Jonny Jesus, founder and promoter of the event. As African music continues to gain global recognition, events such as the Midlands Ghana Independence celebration play an important role in bringing communities together and showcasing the vibrancy of Ghanaian culture. With four consecutive sold-out events, Jonny Jesus has built a reputation for delivering high-energy cultural celebrations that continue to attract growing audiences each year. About Jonny Jesus Jonny Jesus, whose legal name is Doctor Jesus, is a Midlands-based event promoter known for organising large-scale nightlife events celebrating African music and culture.
