FROM YOUR LOVED ONES?

Through caring from a long distance and loss, Maysoun learned what it means to care from afar and grieve across borders. Her journey taught her that even in separation, love finds new ways to grow.

If you are navigating the delicate balance of distance, the guilt of being away, or the unfolding of grief while trying to maintain your own self-care, this is your guide.

More than a memoir of loss, this is a compassionate guide for expats and those who care from afar. Grief is a universal experience, yet it is lived with different dimensions when abroad.

This book addresses how to turn pain into growth, embrace vulnerability, and find community beyond borders. Even at a distance, love can deepen, hope can endure, and our truest selves can emerge.
