With decades of client-focused experience, Sahara has established herself as a beacon of professionalism and exceptional service in the leasing industry.

Beginning her career at a young age in customer service and sales, Sahara quickly garnered a reputation for her meticulous attention to detail and unwavering commitment to client satisfaction. Her concierge-style approach ensures that responsiveness, care, and personalized support are at the forefront of every interaction with clients. “I believe that every client deserves individualized attention and support during their housing journey,” says Sahara. “It’s about making them feel comfortable and informed every step of the way.”

Sahara’s journey into real estate was enriched during her time at the University of North Dakota, where she gained hands-on experience in property administration and leasing. She played a pivotal role in managing on-campus and military base housing communities, supporting hundreds of residential units. Her experience working with Air Force families during relocations and deployments further honed her ability to coordinate large-scale leasing operations while ensuring residents felt supported throughout the process.

Today, Sahara brings that same dedication and high level of service to her work at BGSF. She focuses on helping residents find homes that meet their unique needs, all while maintaining transparency and trust throughout the leasing process. Known for her integrity and reliability, Sahara is actively pursuing her real estate license, with plans to expand into both residential and commercial real estate in the future.

Outside of her professional endeavors, Sahara enjoys cooking and event planning. She collaborates with her family-run team to organize and cater weddings, micro-weddings, and special events through her event company. This creative outlet allows her to bring her vibrant personality and meticulous attention to detail to the world of event management, further enhancing her skills in customer service.

Sahara attributes her success to her unique approach, stating, “My concierge-style customer service and vibrant personality ensure that every interaction is centered on the client and that nothing is ever done halfway.” With her unwavering commitment to excellence, Sahara Rex-Bey is poised to make a lasting impact on the leasing landscape in the Philadelphia region.
