

Stratton Butaud: Elevating Commercial Real Estate Services in Houston

Houston Advisor Combines Expertise and Personal Touch to Drive Client Success

Houston, Texas Mar 11, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Stratton Butaud, a dedicated Commercial Real Estate Advisor and Property Manager at Black Label Commercial Group, is making waves in the Houston real estate market with his exceptional service and commitment to client success. Serving clients across the greater Houston area, Stratton specializes in the representation of buyers and sellers in commercial real estate transactions, commercial leasing, and property management for multi-tenant retail and office spaces.

With a focus on both large corporations and small businesses, Stratton tailors his approach to meet the unique goals of each client. His meticulous attention to detail and commitment to maintaining properties in prime condition have resulted in consistently high occupancy rates. “My clients are my top priority, and my goal is to help their businesses thrive,” says Stratton. “Building strong relationships with developers and construction teams allows me to assist clients in customizing properties to fit their specific needs.”

In just the past three years, Stratton has successfully facilitated over $15 million in real estate transactions, a testament to his expertise and market knowledge. Despite this impressive milestone, he views his most significant achievement as the positive impact he has on his clients’ success. Stratton’s availability and unwavering dedication to meeting client needs remain central to his professional ethos.

Stratton’s service areas include Houston, Spring, and Katy, Texas, where he specializes in leasing, property management, and acting as both buyer and listing agent for commercial properties. His deep understanding of the local market dynamics positions him as a valuable partner for anyone looking to navigate the complexities of commercial real estate.

Outside of work, Stratton is an avid soccer fan who passionately supports both the Demos and Houston teams. He enjoys visiting the gun range with family and immersing himself in the lively atmosphere of the Houston Rodeo. Family time is a priority for him, especially as he supports his sister through her college journey, underscoring his commitment to both professional and personal relationships.

Stratton attributes his success to his unwavering dedication and consistency. “I show up every single day, even during challenging times, working from 7 AM to 7 PM and dedicating my nights and weekends to helping my clients achieve their real estate goals,” he says.
