“Time isn’t running out—it’s being traded.”

THE CHRONO ACCORD

FRANK JACKSON

Los Angeles, California Mar 18, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - AM I AM Publishing announces the release of The Chrono Accord, a cerebral speculative thriller by author Frank Jackson, available now in ebook ($9.99) and print ($21.99) editions through major retailers worldwide. The novel arrives as one of the most anticipated speculative fiction releases of early 2026.

ABOUT THE BOOK

In the wake of the 2026 temporal shift, history is no longer a set of facts—it is a commodity. Under the strict regulations of The Chrono Accord, every second lived must be accounted for, and every paradox carries a death sentence. When a low-level “Time-Broker” discovers a localized fracture in the Accord—a “pocket” of ungoverned seconds—he must decide whether to sell it to the highest bidder, or use it to rewrite the tragedy that defined his life.

At its core, The Chrono Accord is a meditation on the human cost of commodifying time—a high-stakes thriller that fuses quantum ethics, corporate dystopia, and intimate grief into a work of striking originality. Fans of Christopher Nolan’s Tenet, the series Dark, and the fiction of Philip K. Dick will find in Jackson’s novel a rich and compelling new entry in the speculative canon.

PRAISES

“A breathtaking dismantling of linear time. Jackson doesn’t just write a story; he re-maps the fourth dimension. The Accord is signed, and we are all its subjects.”

“The definitive speculative work of early 2026. Jackson manages to make the complex physics of time feel as intimate as a heartbeat.”
