

Urmi's Art Forum Expands with Online & Offline Classes, Boasts 95% Placement Success in Top Design Institutes

Mumbai, Maharashtra May 8, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Urmi's Art Forum, Mumbai's premier destination for art and design education, today announced its seamless blend of online and offline classes to empower aspiring artists citywide and beyond. With a stellar 95% placement rate in elite programs like NID, NIFT, UCEED, and Sir J.J. School of Art, the forum is redefining creative training for the digital age.

Founded by visionary artist Urmi, the forum offers flexible learning modes tailored to busy Mumbai schedules:

- Offline Classes: Hands-on studios in key Mumbai locations for immersive sketching, portfolio building, and exam prep.
- Online Classes: Live interactive sessions via Zoom, with recorded access, digital tools training, and virtual critiques—ideal for students across Maharashtra and India.

"Art knows no boundaries, especially in 2026," said Urmi. "Whether you're in Bandra or Bengaluru, our hybrid model ensures top-tier coaching. We've placed 250+ students this year alone, proving our methods work."

Highlight Placements (2025-2026):

- 45 students into National Institute of Design (NID) via dedicated entrance coaching.
- 38 into NIFT Mumbai and Delhi campuses.
- 52 aced UCEED for IIT Bombay's IDC School of Design.
- 60+ secured BFA seats at Sir J.J. School of Art and Rachna Sansad through MAH AAC CET.
- International wins: IB Visual Arts and Cambridge A-Level toppers heading to UK and US programs.

Programs span NID entrance exam coaching, UCEED coaching, NIFT classes, MAH AAC CET BFA prep, IB Visual Arts, and Cambridge Art & Design, plus design career counselling.
