Washington, D.C, District of Columbia Mar 4, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Hollywood's hidden Secret since 2011

In 2011, Washington, D.C., "The Wonders of Monkey Mac" won the Grand Prize in the "Family film Competition." An invitation to Hollywood was offered, but not a movie deal.

Why wouldn't Hollywood want to make a "Family" movie everyone could watch? Why would they keep a Christian movie from your children when it's educational and entertaining. For this reason, I'm offering the e-book for free in both Spanish and English, and you may buy it on Amazon.

Well, "The Wonders of Monkey Mac" is back with a new book cover and very soon it will be known as the greatest children's book ever written! Every child should experience the joy of traveling to Snacker Packer Stacker's Land. For this reason, I'm offering the e-book in both Spanish and English, and you may buy it on Amazon.

What's the book about?

This adventure/mystery/comedy is a story about a monkey named Mac, who was raised as a human child and forced into a scientific experiment. He's put in a zoo with some wild monkeys to see whether he can make them more like humans, or if they will make him more like a wild animal. Meanwhile, he meets three boys, Snac, Pac, and Stac. They build a go-kart and race against the girls and bad boys from school, crash, and wind up in a whole lot of trouble, being chased by a goofy cop. There is a secret disk missing and now the Army, FBI and CIA are searching for Mac. Will they find Mac? Will Mac survive the science experiment? Will the wild monkeys act more human? Will the kids escape jail? Will the children's friendship endure?

In this novel, kids travel to Snacker Packer Stacker's Land where they create humorous names for their own Snacker Packer Stacker's snacks. They will enjoy speaking Snackerpackerstackish, learning riddles, rhymes and sing-a-longs. They become great Snackerpackerstackians, stacking, packing and stacking knowledge of math, science, animals, and Spanish. They will remain captivated with animals, magic, ghosts, and aliens. Kids will learn lessons of faith, hope, and love that can help them deal with everyday life situations like bullying, sibling rivalry, lying, cheating, stealing, self-esteem issues, and other conflicts.

While this book is intended for youngsters aged 7 to 12, it is equally enjoyable for adults who appreciate children's literature. The most delightful aspect! You can enjoy the story through your headphones. Why not relive your childhood and experience this adventure during your lunch break? Picture the happiness in your children's hearts when you return home and share these tales.

"The Wonders of Monkey Mac"
By Stephanie A. Harris

Hi! My name is Stephanie A. Harris. I am a Christian comedy writer, inventor and CEO of "Something Useful, Inc." We provide entertainment, comedy, education, and the wisdom of Jesus! It will soon tell a household name.

TRUE STORY!

In 2011 Hollywood my screenplay, "The Wonders of Monkey Mac," won the Grand Prize in the "Tumble Elin Competition." I was certain Hollywood would call and offer a movie deal, but nobody ever did. It is so crucial that this movie be made, I've decided to give you a free copy of the book. By God's will and with your support, this film will get made. Kids will play games, color, cutouts, write poems and have chance to star in the movie.

Here! By making a donation or investing, With over fifteen investment choices, "Happy Writing Boards" for our kids is the most significant. These are whiteboards, perforated with education charts. Every child should have one at home and at school. Contact me about the alternative investment options.

If you are not a reader, no worries! You can enjoy listening with your headphones. Just use the QR Code to enter Snacker Packer Stacker's Land in a matter of a few clicks.

WELCOME SNACKER PACKER STACKER'S LAND!

A comedy, mystery, and adventure story

This is a story of a monkey named, Mac, who was raised as a human and is forced into a scientific experiment. The scientists want to determine if Mac will have what it is to compete with the wild monkeys as it will teach the wild monkeys to become more human. Meanwhile, Monkey Mac meets three boys, Isaac, Pac, and Eric. They build a go-cart and race against some girls and boys from school.

The kids crash and wind up in a whole lot of trouble, being chased by a greedy cop. Meanwhile, the children face difficulties at home, school and in the neighborhood.

In this Christian novel, kids travel to Snacker Packer Stacker's Land and create funny names for their own Snacker Packer Stacker's Books. They have fun spelling, Snackspackstacks, stacking, learning rhymes, poems and song-a-long. They become great Snackspackstackers, stacking, packing and stacking knowledge of math, science, animals, and Spanish.

Children will remain captivated with the talking animals. They will have lessons of faith, hope, and love that can help them deal with everyday life situations like helping, sibling rivalry, lying, cheating, stealing, self-esteem issues, and other conflicts.
