

America's Best In Medicine: Alfrediriche Viray, MSN, RN, Brings Advanced Leadership To Emergency Nursing In Arizona

ER Charge Nurse at Kayenta Health Center Strengthens Critical Care Delivery Through Experience, Education, and Patient-Centered Leadership

Kingman, Arizona Apr 28, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Alfrediriche Viray, DNP, MSN, BSN, is a highly skilled emergency and critical care nurse currently serving as an ER Charge Nurse at Kayenta Health Center, an Indian Health Service (IHS) facility in Kayenta, Arizona. With extensive experience in highacuity environments, Dr. Viray has built a distinguished career defined by clinical excellence, strong leadership, and a deep commitment to patient-centered emergency care.

In his current role, Dr. Viray is responsible for overseeing emergency department operations, supervising clinical staff, and ensuring the delivery of safe, efficient, and high-quality care. He plays a critical role in managing emergent and life-threatening situations, coordinating care among interdisciplinary teams, and supporting both patients and staff during high-pressure clinical scenarios.

Dr. Viray is also deeply involved in mentoring newly hired nurses and strengthening departmental performance through guidance and education. His leadership approach emphasizes collaboration, clear communication, and accountability, all of which contribute to a well-coordinated and highly responsive emergency care environment. His ability to remain calm under pressure and apply sound clinical judgment has earned him the trust of both colleagues and patients.

Dr. Viray earned his Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of San Agustin in Iloilo City, Philippines. He later completed a Master of Science in Nursing with a focus on Leadership and Administration at Southern Utah University, followed by a Doctor of Nursing Practice degree specializing in Adult Gerontology Nurse Practitioner at Arizona State University. His academic achievements are complemented by his recognition as a Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society member and ANEW Scholar.

Earlier in his career in the Philippines, Dr. Viray gained valuable experience across a range of healthcare settings, including St. Paul's Hospital Iloilo, Perpetual Help Medical Center Las Piñas, and Dr. Ricardo S. Provido Sr. Memorial District Hospital. These experiences provided him with a strong foundation in emergency care, intensive care, medical-surgical nursing, pediatrics, labor and delivery, and perioperative services.

Prior to his current position at Kayenta Health Center, Dr. Viray served as an ER Staff Nurse at Dilkon Medical Center and held multiple leadership roles at Sage Memorial Hospital, including MTU Charge Nurse, ER Staff Nurse, and MTU Supervisor. In these roles, he contributed significantly to staff development, real-time chart auditing, and the implementation of clinical protocols and hospital policies designed to improve patient safety and workflow efficiency.

"I love the adrenaline rush of emergency nursing," Dr. Viray says. "I'm the type of nurse who thrives when it's busy, and I feel like my critical thinking skills are really put to the test, especially with traumatic experiences, accidents, and emergency situations. There's something about emergency medicine that I'm really passionate about. I like the challenge and the fast-paced environment where I can make a real difference for patients in critical moments."

Licensed in Arizona, Dr. Viray holds multiple advanced certifications, including ACLS, BLS, PALS, TNCC, and NRP. He is also an active member of professional organizations such as the Filipino American Nurse Practitioners of Arizona. Fluent in both English and Tagalog, he is able to provide culturally competent, patient-centered care to diverse populations, strengthening communication and trust across the communities he serves.

Through his leadership, mentorship, and dedication to lifelong learning, Dr. Alfrediriche Viray continues to advance emergency nursing practice while improving outcomes for the communities he serves.
