

Americas Best In Medicine: Anne Walker Kimes, PMHNP-BC, Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Serving Rural Mississippi Care

Delivering Compassionate, Patient-Centered Mental Health Care to Underserved Communities in the Mississippi Delta

Greenville, Mississippi Apr 1, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Anne Walker Kimes, PMHNP-BC, is a Board-Certified Psychiatric-Mental Health Nurse Practitioner dedicated to providing compassionate, patient-centered care in rural Mississippi. Based in Forest, she serves the local community through the Community Health Clinic, offering diagnostic management and therapeutic interventions tailored to each patient's needs.

Walker earned a Bachelor of Science in Psychology from Mississippi State University in 2016 and a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Mississippi Medical Center (UMMC) in 2018. She gained five years of hands-on clinical experience in the Emergency Departments at Merit Health River Oaks and Greenwood Leflore Hospital before returning to UMMC to complete her Master of Science in Nursing, specializing in Psychiatric Mental Health, graduating Magna Cum Laude.

Growing up in the Mississippi Delta profoundly shaped Walker's passion for mental health care. She is committed to addressing the unique challenges faced by underserved rural communities and reducing the stigma surrounding mental illness. Her clinical expertise spans a wide range of psychiatric conditions, and she works collaboratively with patients to develop personalized treatment plans that support long-term wellness.

"What I enjoy most about practicing medicine is supporting patients as they navigate and overcome trauma. Being able to guide them through challenging experiences and witness their resilience and growth is deeply rewarding and motivates me every day," says Walker.

In addition to her clinical practice, Walker is dedicated to education, advocacy, and expanding access to mental health care. She is currently accepting new patients and participates in a variety of insurance plans, ensuring her services remain accessible to those who need them most.

Through her combination of clinical expertise, community focus, and commitment to mental health excellence, Anne Walker Kimes has become a trusted and valued provider in the Forest, Mississippi area, making a meaningful impact on the lives of her patients and the broader community.
