

America's Best In Medicine Recognizes Lana White-King, MD, For Excellence In Hospital Medicine And Innovation

Seasoned Hospitalist and Site Medical Director at M Health Fairview Northland Medical Center Champions Patient Safety, Collaboration, and Equitable Care

MD, is a distinguished hospitalist and Site Medical Director at M Health Fairview Northland Medical Center, bringing more than 15 years of experience in internal medicine to her role. Known for her dual commitment to clinical excellence and strategic leadership, Dr. White-King plays a pivotal role in advancing patient care, safety, and interdisciplinary collaboration across the hospital.

In her clinical practice, Dr. White-King specializes in the diagnosis and management of complex and chronic conditions affecting the cardiovascular, pulmonary, renal, digestive, and vascular systems. She provides comprehensive inpatient care to adult and elderly populations, integrating evidence-based medicine with personalized treatment plans. Her approach emphasizes preventive care, wellness, mental health, and long-term disease management, ensuring that each patient receives holistic and compassionate care.

As a leader, Dr. White-King has successfully spearheaded innovative initiatives, including the implementation of Interdisciplinary Bedside Rounding. This collaborative model brings together physicians, nurses, and care management professionals directly at the patient's bedside, resulting in improved communication, enhanced patient safety, more efficient discharge processes, and reduced hospital readmissions. In addition, she has led impactful quality improvement efforts targeting reductions in catheter-associated infections, C. difficile infections, and other key safety metrics.

Dr. White-King earned her Bachelor of Science in Microbiology from the University of Minnesota and her Medical Degree from the University of Minnesota Medical School. She is board-certified by the American Board of Internal Medicine and is an active member of the American College of Physicians. Further strengthening her leadership capabilities, she is currently pursuing a Healthcare MBA focused on organizational strategy, healthcare systems, and research-driven innovation.

Deeply rooted in her Native American heritage, Dr. White-King is a passionate advocate for healthcare equity and access, particularly for underserved communities. Through her clinical work, leadership initiatives, and community engagement, she remains committed to driving sustainable improvements in care delivery.

Dr. Lana White-King exemplifies the modern physician-leader—combining clinical expertise, visionary leadership, and cultural awareness to shape a more effective and equitable healthcare system.
