Gwalior, Madhya Pradesh Apr 23, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Dikshasthal is redefining how spirituality is experienced in the digital age by positioning itself as a social media platform for Gen Z, focused on spiritual growth and cultural connection.

Unlike traditional platforms, Dikshasthal combines the power of social networking with India's rich spiritual heritage, allowing users to discover, share, and engage with Bhagwat Katha, Ram Katha, and spiritual content in an interactive way.

The platform enables users to:

- Follow and connect with Katha Vachaks
- Explore short-form and engaging spiritual content
- Stay updated with live and upcoming Katha events
- Participate in quizzes and knowledge-based activities
- Build a spiritually connected digital community

Designed especially for Gen Z, Dikshasthal makes spirituality accessible, engaging, and relevant in today's fast-paced digital world.

“We are building a platform where spirituality meets social media, making it easier for the younger generation to connect with Sanatan Dharma in a modern way,” said the founder of Dikshasthal.

With increasing digital consumption among youth, Dikshasthal aims to become the go-to platform for spiritual discovery and community engagement in India.
