

H.E.A.L Hair Care Unveils The Science of Healing: How Brittany Charles is Redefining Herbal Hair Wellness

Founder and Lead Formulator Brittany Charles introduces a high-impact standard in botanical restoration, prioritizing nutrient-dense herbal infusions over synthetic fillers to empower community wellness through the Entrepreneurs of Impact initiative.

Houston, Texas Apr 14, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Before it was a business, H.E.A.L Hair Care was a personal search for a miracle. When Kendrick and Brittany Charles first met, they shared a silent struggle: their hair was falling out. Brittany had spent years battling thinning hair, but she refused to accept the chemical-laden corporate "solutions" that didn't work.

Utilizing her background in research science and clinical laboratory practices, Brittany began hand-blending nutrient-dense herbal infusions in her kitchen. The results were transformative. By the time she met her husband, Kendrick Charles, her hair had been fully restored, and she introduced him to the same handmade techniques. Applying those infusions to his own hair and beard brought his hair back thicker and healthier than ever before.

What began as a shared miracle to restore their own crowns has now blossomed into a national movement. This "mom-and-pop" boutique brand has officially claimed the #1 spot in the national Entrepreneurs of Impact competition, proving that handcrafted, made-to-order integrity delivers results that surpass those of corporate giants.

As a Lead Formulator with experience in Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP), Brittany ensures every small batch maintains professional precision while keeping its handmade soul.

The brand's holistic philosophy is anchored by Kendrick Charles, a dedicated veteran with a background in Integrative Health Sciences. Together, they are rallying their community to help them stay at the top of the leaderboard to benefit GenYouth, a national non-profit dedicated to creating healthier school communities.

"Being ranked number one is an honor, but our goal is to maintain that lead to bring maximum awareness to GenYouth's incredible work," says Kendrick Charles.
