

Independent Artist Einherjar Announces New Single "Not Done Yet" Releasing April 17

Following the streaming growth of previous releases including "Call Me Pagan," independent artist Einherjar prepares to release the new single " Not Done Yet," with pre-orders beginning April 4

Knoxville, Tennessee Apr 5, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Independent alternative artist Einherjar has announced the upcoming release of the new single “Not Done Yet,” scheduled for release on April 17, 2026. Pre-orders for the single begin April 4 on major digital music platforms.

The release follows continued growth from previous singles, including “Call Me Pagan,” which has reached over 300,000 streams worldwide across digital streaming platforms. The milestone reflects the continued growth of the independent music project and its expanding audience.

Einherjar operates as an independent artist, writing, recording, and producing original music released across major platforms including Spotify, Apple Music, Amazon Music, and YouTube. The project combines alternative music influences with cinematic sound and atmospheric production, focusing on themes of self-reflection, resilience, and personal growth.

The upcoming single “Not Done Yet” continues this direction, focusing on perseverance and continuing forward despite adversity. The release is part of a series of independent music releases and visual media projects currently in development.

Listeners can find Einherjar’s music and follow the project at the official website and streaming platforms:
