Mumbai, Maharashtra Apr 8, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - CSP.in (CSP India Network Pvt. Ltd.) secured dual global recognition at the Global Innovation Institute (GINI) Awards 2025 within six months of its platform launch, winning the Distinguished Innovation by Private Sector award, while its Founder & Director, Debashish Roy, received the Distinguished Innovator title. The recognition places the startup among globally acknowledged innovators driving real-world impact through scalable execution.

At a time when millions of last-mile service outlets across rural and semi-urban India struggle with unstable incomes, CSP.in is building a new model of assisted digital infrastructure that converts access into improved earning opportunities. By transforming existing service points into structured, multi-service hubs, the platform enables local entrepreneurs to generate stable, diversified income while expanding access to essential services. With over 47,000 partners onboarded across 350+ talukas, the company has demonstrated rapid early scale while remaining fully bootstrapped and subsidy-independent.

Positioned at the intersection of technology, livelihoods, and inclusion, CSP.in aligns with India's Atmanirbhar Bharat vision by enabling self-reliance at the grassroots. Its execution-led approach strengthens last-mile service delivery while creating a replicable pathway for sustainable economic participation—bringing reliability to rural ecosystems and smiles to the last mile.
