Coral Springs, Florida Apr 23, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Initor Global UK is pleased to announce its formal integration into its sister organisation, Unison Globus, effective April 2026, marking a significant milestone built on years of close collaboration and a shared commitment to delivering excellence.

With over two decades of experience, Unison Globus is a well-established provider of outsourced tax, accounting, and cross-border compliance services, supporting firms across North America, the United Kingdom, Australia, and Canada.

As part of this integration, all existing teams will remain in place, with operations managers continuing as primary points of contact. All workflows and service delivery processes will continue without interruption. Every professional from Initor Global UK will transition to Unison Globus, ensuring complete continuity and stability for clients.

This strategic move formalises a long-standing operational alignment between the two organisations and enhances the combined entity's ability to deliver consistent, high-quality services. Together, the organisation now comprises a team of over 600 professionals operating from delivery centres, including to that in India.

The expanded leadership team includes senior professionals with partner-level experience from leading UK accounting firms, bringing valuable industry insight to support clients in improving operational efficiency, expanding capacity, and driving sustainable long-term performance.

Commenting on the development, Uday Ranpara, Co-Founder and Group CEO, said:
“This integration cum transition enables us to deliver more sophisticated, high-value solutions supported by increased scale, deeper specialisation, and the trusted relationships we have built with our clients.”

The organisation remains firmly committed to maintaining the trust and confidence of its clients by ensuring a seamless transition and continuing to deliver exceptional service standards.
