Austin, and surrounding communities since 1990. With more than three decades of experience in the Texas real estate market, Kelley has established herself as a dedicated professional who prioritizes personalized service and relationship-building in her practice.

Kelley began her real estate career as an apartment locator before becoming a REALTOR® with Stanberry REALTORS® in 2003. Since then, she has specialized in residential real estate, guiding buyers, sellers, and investors through the complexities of the market. Her expertise extends to land representation, farm & ranch sales, and commercial transactions, making her a versatile asset to her clients.

She finds immense joy in witnessing their excitement when they discover their dream home. "There's nothing more rewarding than helping someone find the right place to call home," Kelley shares. Her commitment to nurturing lasting relationships means that she stays in touch with her clients throughout the year, ensuring she remains a reliable resource for their real estate needs.

Her effectiveness in meeting client objectives has garnered her significant recognition, including 3rd place in residential sales from the Bastrop County Association of REALTORS® and consistent membership in the Stanberry 100 Percent Club from 2013 to 2022.

Kelley attributes her success to her early experiences in the industry, where she honed her communication skills and built a reputation for maintaining consistent contact with her clients. This strategy, combined with her personal touch, has fostered strong connections and cultivated a loyal client base. Many of her clients are multi-generational, a testament to her commitment to providing exceptional service that keeps them coming back.

Beyond her professional achievements, Kelley is deeply committed to her community. She has actively participated in Relay for Life, supporting the American Cancer Society, and has taken on various leadership roles, including serving as secretary for the local Lyons Club and participating in her Home Owners Association's ACC committee. Additionally, she has mentored public school children and contributed to children's ministry efforts.
