Vaughan, Ontario Apr 8, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - MiraGlow, a Canadian skincare brand, is proud to announce the launch of its new premium range of vegan and cruelty-free skincare products designed specifically for sensitive skin. The collection features gentle, hypoallergenic formulations that deliver effective results while promoting clean beauty. MiraGlow aims to set a new standard among Canadian skincare products with its commitment to providing high-quality, ethical and sustainable skincare options.

The new MiraGlow collection is a result of extensive research and development, with a focus on creating products that are safe and gentle for sensitive skin. The brand's team of experts has carefully selected natural and organic ingredients to create a range of products that are free from harsh chemicals, parabens, and synthetic fragrances. This makes MiraGlow's products suitable for all skin types, including those with sensitive skin.

"We are thrilled to introduce our premium range of vegan and cruelty-free skincare products to the Canadian market," says Sarah Jones, founder of MiraGlow. "We understand the importance of using safe and ethical products on our skin, and that's why we have created a collection that is not only effective but also promotes clean beauty. Our goal is to set a new standard in the Canadian skincare industry by providing high-quality, natural and sustainable options for all skin types."

MiraGlow's new collection includes a variety of products, including cleansers, toners, serums, moisturizers, and masks. Each product is carefully crafted with natural and organic ingredients, such as aloe vera, jojoba oil, and green tea extract, to nourish and protect the skin. The brand's commitment to sustainability is also reflected in its packaging, which is made from recyclable materials.

MiraGlow's premium range of vegan and cruelty-free skincare products is now available for purchase on the brand's website and select retailers across Canada. With its gentle and effective formulations, MiraGlow is set to become a go-to brand for those looking for safe and ethical skincare options.
