

Olmio.pl Launches Dedicated Bottle Deposit Basket Category Ahead of Poland's New Deposit Return System

Polish online retailer olmio.pl introduces SONGMICS 95L deposit bottle containers as Poland prepares for mandatory kaucja system rollout in October 2025

Katowice, Slaskie Apr 9, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Olmio.pl, a Polish e-commerce retailer specializing in home organization and furniture, has launched a dedicated product category for deposit bottle storage containers in response to Poland's upcoming mandatory deposit return system (system kaucyjny), set to take effect on October 1, 2025. The new category features SONGMICS 95-liter bottle collection containers, available in black and gray variants, designed specifically to help Polish households manage the storage and transport of returnable plastic bottles, glass bottles, and aluminum cans.

Poland's deposit return system will require consumers to pay a deposit (kaucja) of 0.50 PLN on plastic PET bottles up to 3 liters and aluminum cans up to 1 liter, and 1.00 PLN on returnable glass bottles up to 1.5 liters. The deposits are refunded when consumers return the packaging to participating retailers equipped with reverse vending machines (RVM). Industry estimates suggest that an average Polish family of four will accumulate 150 to 200 returnable bottles and cans per month, creating an immediate demand for practical household storage solutions.

The SONGMICS RRB509 container offered by olmio.pl features a 95-liter capacity accommodating approximately 200 cans, a self-sealing drop-in opening that prevents odors from escaping, an interior bag with a drawstring for easy transport to return points, and lockable wheels for stability. The product assembles in under five minutes without tools and folds flat for storage when not in use. The interior bag is machine washable. Both the black (Ink Black) and gray (Light Gray) color variants are priced at 99.99 PLN and are available for next-day dispatch from a warehouse located in Poland.

"Polish households have never had to think about storing returnable packaging before. The deposit return system changes that overnight," said Kamil Wojtylas, founder of olmio.pl. "We identified this as a genuine gap in the Polish home organization market and made sure to have a practical, quality solution available before October."

Olmio.pl ships via DPD courier and InPost Parcel Lockers, with free delivery on orders over 299 PLN and a 14-day no-questions-asked return policy. The bottle deposit container category is available at olmio.pl/product-category/przechowywanie-i-organizacja/kosze-na-butelki-kaucyjne/
