

Patricia Jancaterino, RN, CRRN, CANS: Leading with Excellence in Rehabilitation and Aesthetic Nursing in Henderson, NV

Experienced Nurse Manager at Encompass Health Combines Clinical Expertise, Patient Advocacy, and Advanced Aesthetic Skills to Enhance Recovery and Confidence

Henderson, Nevada Apr 16, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Patricia Jancaterino, RN, CRRN, CANS, is a highly experienced Registered Nurse based in Henderson, Nevada, specializing in both rehabilitation and aesthetic nursing. Currently serving as a Nurse Manager at Encompass Health, Patricia oversees nursing staff, manages clinical operations, and ensures the delivery of high-quality, patient-centered care. Her professional philosophy is rooted in restoring patients to their highest level of function while also supporting their confidence, dignity, and overall well-being.

“I truly enjoy helping people—whether it’s restoring their confidence, supporting their recovery, or guiding them to achieve their best possible health outcomes,” Patricia shared. “Seeing patients regain function and feel empowered is incredibly rewarding.”

With more than 20 years of nursing experience, Patricia brings a broad and diverse clinical background spanning emergency medicine, trauma care, rehabilitation, and advanced aesthetic procedures. She spent 12 years as an emergency room nurse at UMass Medical Center, a Level 1 trauma center, where she developed the ability to perform effectively in high-pressure, fast-paced clinical environments.

In addition to her acute care experience, Patricia has worked extensively in private plastic surgery practices and with medical device companies, where she trained surgeons, dermatologists, and healthcare professionals in advanced injectable techniques. She is recognized as a master injector and certified laser nurse educator, with expertise in both on-label and off-label aesthetic procedures.

Patricia holds multiple advanced certifications, including Certified Rehabilitation Registered Nurse (CRRN) and Certified Aesthetic Nurse Specialist (CANS), reflecting her commitment to maintaining the highest standards of clinical excellence. Her ability to blend rehabilitation-focused care with aesthetic medicine allows her to provide a uniquely comprehensive approach that supports both functional recovery and personal confidence.

Patricia earned her Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the Burbank School of Nursing and also holds a Bachelor of Arts in English from Assumption College. This combination of clinical and liberal arts education has contributed to her strong communication skills, ethical practice, and patient-centered approach to care.

Throughout her career, Patricia has built a reputation for integrity, reliability, and advanced clinical knowledge, earning the trust of surgeons, dermatologists, and healthcare teams across both rehabilitation and aesthetic specialties.

Beyond her professional responsibilities, Patricia is passionate about mentoring fellow nurses, advancing continuing education, and supporting community wellness initiatives. Her dedication to improving patient outcomes and elevating nursing practice continues to position her as a respected leader in her field.
