FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Reverend Benne Sykes, PhD Appointed Classic Miss Mountain West 2026

The Reverend Benne Sykes, PhD has officially been appointed Classic Miss Mountain West 2026 by the national pageant organization Miss United Crown of America competition.

Benne will represent the Mountain West in the Classic Miss inaugural national competition taking place on September 24, 2026. Miss United Crown of America is a newly launched national pageant platform that recognizes individuals for their leadership, confidence, and commitment to personal growth and impact. As part of the founding class of titleholders, Dr. Sykes joins a national movement that honors modern pageantry and community-driven purpose. Delegates from all 50 states, regions, and territories will compete in the national pageant from September 24, 2026, representing their states with pride, professionalism, and personal vision.

Dr. Sykes is honored and humbled to be considered among the remarkable group of talented women who are competing for the title Classic Miss United America 2026. She looks forward to sharing her platform, recognizing 250 years of American pride and history as #America250 is celebrated in every state in our great country.
