Richmond, Virginia Apr 15, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - The Mystic Publisher, a leading self-publishing services company and subsidiary of MOFRO Enterprises Inc., is proud to reaffirm its position as a trusted partner for aspiring and established authors seeking to bring their literary visions to life. Since its founding in 2020, the company has grown from a boutique ghostwriting and editing service into a comprehensive, all-in-one publishing solution serving writers across the globe. With a team of seasoned professionals and a deep commitment to quality, The Mystic Publisher continues to raise the bar for what authors can expect from a self-publishing partner.

With offices in Richmond, Virginia, and New York City, The Mystic Publisher offers an extensive range of services designed to support authors at every stage of their publishing journey. These include ghostwriting, manuscript editing, book cover design, audiobook narration, Amazon KDP publishing, SEO content writing, book marketing, book printing, and author website design. Whether a client comes with a fully developed manuscript or nothing more than a spark of an idea, the company's team of experts is equipped to guide them from concept to completion.

The process begins with a personalized consultation, where the team takes the time to understand each author's unique vision, goals, and creative intent. From there, a structured plan is developed to ensure consistency in tone, style, and direction throughout the project. Drafts are reviewed collaboratively, with clients given the opportunity to provide feedback and request refinements at every stage.
