

TrekHops Launches Affordable and Customizable Europe Tour Packages from India

Gurgaon, Haryana Apr 9, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - TrekHops, a leading international travel agency, has officially announced the launch of its Europe tour packages from India, offering travelers seamless, affordable, and fully customizable European holiday experiences.

With a growing demand among Indian travelers for multi-country European vacations, TrekHops aims to simplify international travel planning by delivering end-to-end solutions that include flights, accommodations, visa assistance, guided tours, and curated itineraries.

Founded in 2016 under i2a Technologies, TrekHops has rapidly expanded its footprint across India, the USA, the UK, New Zealand, and Australia, serving thousands of travelers with tailored global travel experiences.

Meeting the Rising Demand for Europe Travel

Europe continues to be one of the most sought-after destinations for Indian tourists, thanks to its rich history, diverse cultures, and iconic landmarks. Recognizing this trend, TrekHops has designed packages that cater to a wide range of travel styles—from budget-friendly trips to luxury getaways.

The newly launched Europe packages cover top destinations including:

- France (Paris)
- Switzerland
- Italy
- Netherlands
- Germany
- Austria

These itineraries are crafted to provide a balance of sightseeing, leisure, and immersive local experiences.

Key Features of TrekHops Europe Tour Packages

- Customizable itineraries tailored to individual preferences
- Competitive pricing with transparent cost structures
- End-to-end travel support, including visa guidance
- Curated experiences across multiple European countries
- Flexible travel options for families, couples, and groups

According to the company, affordability and personalization remain the core focus. Travelers can modify their trips based on duration, destinations, and budget, ensuring a hassle-free planning experience.

Enhancing the International Travel Experience

TrekHops has built its reputation on providing seamless travel services—from flights and hotels to corporate travel (MICE) and group tours. The company emphasizes customer satisfaction through professional support, detailed planning, and reliable on-ground assistance.

“Our goal is to make Europe more accessible to Indian travelers,” said a spokesperson from TrekHops. “With our newly launched Europe tour packages from India, we are offering not just trips, but well-curated travel experiences that are easy to book, flexible, and memorable.”

Why Choose TrekHops?

- Established global travel presence
- Trusted by international travelers
- Expertise in customized holiday planning
- Strong global partnerships and logistics support
- Dedicated customer assistance throughout the journey

With Europe packages now available, TrekHops continues to strengthen its position as a preferred choice for international travel planning from India.
