

America's Best in Medicine: Victor M. Vega, CCM, PCT, CNA: President and Owner of VMV Med Marketing Services, Inc.

Delivering Patient-Centered Concierge Medicine, Care Management, and Community
Advocacy Across South Florida

Plantation, Florida May 20, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Victor M. Vega, CCM, PCT, CNA, is a healthcare executive, concierge care manager, patient advocate, and community liaison with more than 30 years of experience navigating and coordinating complex healthcare services. As President and

Founder of VMV MED SERVICES and VMV MED MARKETING SERVICES, Victor has become widely recognized for his compassionate, patient-centered approach to healthcare coordination, advocacy, education, and strategic healthcare support throughout Florida.

Serving South Florida, Southwest Florida, and clients throughout the state, Victor specializes in concierge-style healthcare navigation designed to simplify the medical process for patients and families. His “One Stop Shop” philosophy focuses on coordinating every aspect of care, including physician referrals, appointment scheduling, medical record organization, treatment coordination, patient advocacy, specialty services, healthcare education, and ongoing support, allowing patients to feel informed, empowered, and supported during some of life’s most challenging moments.

Founded in 2008 and expanded into a full-time mission in 2017, VMV MED SERVICES was built on Victor’s belief that healthcare should be personal, compassionate, accessible, and efficient. His work bridges the gap between patients, physicians, hospitals, specialists, families, and community resources, creating a seamless support system tailored to each individual’s unique needs.

Victor’s healthcare career includes leadership, patient relations, business development, concierge services, and operational support roles with respected healthcare organizations, including HCA, University of Miami Miller School of Medicine, Baptist Health South Florida, Seasons Hospice & Palliative Care, and multiple specialty medical practices throughout Florida. Over the years, he has developed extensive experience in patient satisfaction initiatives, healthcare marketing, care coordination, community outreach, physician relations, and executive healthcare support services.

Known for his ability to connect with people from all walks of life, Victor combines clinical knowledge with strong communication, advocacy, and leadership skills. His work often extends beyond traditional healthcare coordination, helping patients and families navigate difficult medical decisions, transitions of care, long-term planning, and access to essential healthcare resources.

Victor is also highly active within the healthcare and community sectors, participating in outreach initiatives, educational programs, healthcare networking organizations, and strategic collaborations focused on improving patient experiences and community health awareness. His passion for education and mentorship has made him a trusted resource for both healthcare professionals and the communities he serves.

At the core of Victor’s mission is a simple philosophy: helping people with dignity, compassion, and purpose. His dedication to service, patient advocacy, and healthcare excellence continues to positively impact individuals, families, healthcare organizations, and communities across Florida.
