

Andrew Tate Sparks Purchase Rumours After Visiting Historic Cluj Hotel Amid Romania Return

Andrew Tate has generated fresh discussion online after videos and photographs emerged appearing to show him visiting the iconic Continental Hotel in Cluj-Napoca during a recent trip through Romania.

Cluj-Napoca, Cluj May 31, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - The footage, which quickly circulated across social media, prompted speculation among supporters and local media after reports suggested Tate and his brother Tristan had been exploring opportunities in the city, including interest in historic properties and future investment projects.

The Continental Hotel is one of the most recognisable landmarks in Cluj, sitting prominently in the city centre and carrying significant historical and cultural value. Online discussion intensified after images of the Tate brothers at the location began spreading across Romanian social media pages and news outlets.

The visit comes during a period of increased travel and public appearances for the brothers, who have recently spent time in the United States before returning to Romania and Dubai. Videos of Andrew and Tristan interacting with supporters continue to generate significant engagement online, reflecting the scale of their global audience.

Sources close to the brothers said they have always maintained a strong connection to Romania despite extensive international travel and continue to view the country as an important part of their business and personal lives.

A spokesperson for Andrew Tate said:

“Andrew and Tristan have spent years building businesses and relationships in Romania and continue to have a genuine appreciation for the country, its culture and its opportunities. Like many entrepreneurs, they are constantly exploring projects and ideas wherever they travel. We cannot confirm or deny the bid for the hotel.”

The footage also triggered widespread debate online, with supporters speculating about potential future investments in Cluj while others simply reacted to seeing the brothers appear unexpectedly in one of Romania’s most well known cities.

Media Contact

Roger Hawke

@gmail.com

Source : Cobratate

See on IssueWire