Cambridge, Ontario May 12, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Convex Studio Ltd has received multiple awards in the 2026 CommunityVotes Kitchener-Waterloo program, recognizing the company's continued work in digital marketing, advertising, and web design services throughout the region.

The company earned the following awards in the 2026 program:

- Platinum – Advertising
- Platinum – Digital Marketing
- Platinum – Social Media Marketing
- Gold – Web Design

CommunityVotes Kitchener-Waterloo recognizes businesses and organizations that local residents and customers support through public nominations and voting. The awards highlight businesses that continue serving their communities through consistent service and customer engagement.

Convex Studio Ltd is a Cambridge-based digital marketing agency working with businesses throughout Kitchener, Waterloo, Cambridge, and surrounding communities. The company develops online marketing strategies tailored to local businesses seeking to improve visibility, customer communication, and digital growth.

Its services include website development, advertising strategy, social media management, digital branding, and online marketing support designed to help businesses strengthen their online presence in competitive regional markets.

Owner Stephen Morgan said the recognition reflects both the trust of clients and the strength of relationships developed across the Waterloo Region business community.

“We appreciate the support we have received from businesses and community members across Kitchener-Waterloo,” said Morgan. “This recognition is meaningful because it reflects the relationships we have built while helping local organizations improve how they connect with customers online.”

Convex Studio Ltd continues working with businesses across a wide range of industries, supporting organizations that want practical and effective digital marketing solutions adapted to changing online trends and customer expectations.

Recognition in multiple CommunityVotes categories reflects the company’s broad service offering and continued focus on supporting businesses throughout the region with marketing strategies that align with local business goals.
