

Destination Freedom Announces New Album R&G (Rhythm and Gospel) Releasing May 29, 2026

A powerful blend of Christian R&B, Hip-Hop, worship, and testimony-driven music.

Houston, Texas May 29, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Destination Freedom is proud to announce the release of their highly anticipated new album, R&G (Rhythm and Gospel), available worldwide on May 29, 2026. The 16-track project delivers a fresh sound that combines smooth R&B melodies, impactful hip-hop influences, heartfelt worship, and faith-centered storytelling designed to inspire listeners from all walks of life.

More than just an album, R&G (Rhythm and Gospel) is a testimony of freedom, healing, spiritual growth, and redemption through Jesus Christ. Each song reflects real-life struggles, victories, and the power of God's grace.

The album includes standout tracks such as "Jesus Everything," "You've Done So Much," "Invisible War," "Break These Chains," "Trade My Life," and "Times of Refreshing." From uplifting praise to honest reflections about temptation, spiritual battles, and trusting God's timing, the project offers listeners both encouragement and truth.

"R&G is about reaching people through rhythm while still keeping the Gospel at the center," says Destination Freedom. "We want people to feel hope, freedom, and the presence of God through every song.”
