The Lake Erie Litfest, a community-driven celebration of literature and creative expression, brings together authors, local vendors, and educational programming to the heart of Erie. With the support of this ECGRA grant, the Erie Art Company is poised to expand the festival's reach, offering even more opportunities for community engagement and the celebration of regional voices.

"We are incredibly honored to receive this support from the Erie County Gaming Revenue Authority," said Brad Ford, lead organizer of the festival and representative of the Erie Art Company. "This grant is a testament to the importance of the arts in Erie and will allow us to elevate the Lake Erie Litfest, ensuring it continues to be a vibrant, accessible, and enriching experience for all attendees in our community."

The Arts, Culture, & Heritage Grant Program is designed to foster cultural vitality and economic growth within Erie County by supporting projects that enhance the quality of life and celebrate the unique character of the region. The Erie Art Company remains committed to these goals through its ongoing dedication to public art, media installations, and community-based cultural programming.
