

FACE THE STAGE Electrifies “WE OUTSIDE” South Carolina Spring Fest at Colonial Life Arena

Columbia, South Carolina May 8, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Fresh off a breakout performance at the highly anticipated “WE OUTSIDE” South Carolina Spring Fest at Colonial Life Arena, rising recording artist Face The Stage delivered one of the festival’s most talked-about performances, energizing thousands of fans alongside major acts including BossMan Dlow, DaBaby, Boston Richey, Playboy Poppy, and more.

Following reports surrounding Kodak Black’s recent arrest and inability to appear at the festival, FACE THE STAGE stepped into the spotlight and delivered an explosive set that had the entire arena rocking from start to finish. Fans and attendees erupted as FACE brought unmatched energy, commanding the stage with his signature futuristic southern sound and unforgettable live performance style.

Performing standout records including “MOVE” and “FUK IT UP,” FACE THE STAGE transformed the arena atmosphere into a high-energy experience that solidified his reputation as one of hip hop’s most exciting emerging performers.

Originally from Dallas, Texas, FACE THE STAGE began his creative journey as a portrait painter, creating artwork for some of the music industry’s biggest names including Drake, Nipsey Hussle, Future, Migos, T.I., Young Dolph, and 2 Chainz. Inspired by the culture and artistry around him, FACE evolved from visual creator to musical innovator, crafting a sound that merges southern hip hop roots with futuristic energy and raw authenticity.

FACE THE STAGE also built a loyal following performing throughout New Orleans’ legendary Bourbon Street scene, where he became known for his electrifying performances, elaborate fashion, and crowd-commanding stage presence. Every appearance delivers an immersive experience that leaves audiences with one message: You have to FACE THE STAGE.

With momentum rapidly building after his standout Spring Fest performance, FACE THE STAGE continues to establish himself as one of the next breakout names in hip hop.
