

Garnett Patterson Injury Lawyers Honors Local Teachers With 136 Lunches

Garnett Patterson Injury Lawyers, LLC celebrates Teacher Appreciation Week by providing meals to educators at Priceville High School, Danville High School, and Danville Middle School.

Huntsville, Alabama May 17, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Garnett Patterson Injury Lawyers, LLC recently showed its appreciation for local educators by providing 136 lunches to teachers across three North Alabama schools during Teacher Appreciation Week.

The firm delivered 56 Chick-fil-A lunches from a local branch to Priceville High School. Danville High School and Danville Middle School received 80 total lunches from Hayes Farm, a local farm known for fresh, community-focused meals. The lunches included sandwiches, fruit, banana pudding, and other items for teachers and staff to enjoy.

The gesture held personal meaning for the firm, as attorney Hunter Garnett lives in Priceville and is originally from Danville. Supporting the schools in both communities was a meaningful way to recognize the dedication of teachers who make a lasting impact on students and families.

“Teachers give so much of themselves every day, and we wanted to take a small moment to show our appreciation,” said Hunter Garnett of Garnett Patterson Injury Lawyers, LLC. “Priceville and Danville are both special communities to me, and it was an honor to support the educators who serve them.”

Garnett Patterson Injury Lawyers, LLC remains committed to supporting the Huntsville area and surrounding North Alabama communities through meaningful local outreach and service.
