

Indo-Canadian Punjabi Artist ABHI Continues Building Emotional Melodic Sound Through Independent Releases

Brampton, Ontario May 17, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - ABHI, the stage name of Abhijeet Singh Sandhu, is an Indo-Canadian Punjabi singer, songwriter, and melodic rap artist currently based in Brampton, Ontario.

Originally from Punjab, India, ABHI has continued developing a modern Punjabi sound through independent music releases that combine emotional songwriting, romantic themes, melodic rap, and commercial production influences.

Recent releases including “All About Love” featuring Karan KRG and “ALCOHOL” have contributed to the artist’s growing online presence across streaming platforms and YouTube. His music style blends Punjabi emotion with modern melodic production and cinematic sound design.

ABHI has collaborated with producer and artist Karan KRG on multiple projects, including “MEHARMA,” released in 2026. The collaboration reflects a continued focus on independent Punjabi music production and melodic experimentation.

The artist maintains an active digital presence through streaming services and social media platforms where listeners can access official music releases, videos, and future updates.
