

Jennifer L. Case, RN, Recognized by America's Best in Medicine, Delivers Compassionate, Patient-Centered Care Across Diverse Healthcare Settings

Experienced Registered Nurse Combines Expertise in Dialysis, Disease Management, Crisis Care, and Patient Education to Improve Outcomes and Build Lasting Patient Trust professional Jennifer L. Case, RN, a highly experienced and compassionate nursing leader with over 19 years of clinical expertise, has been honored with the prestigious America's Best in Medicine 2026 award, recognizing her outstanding contributions to patient care, chronic disease management, and clinical leadership.

Throughout her distinguished career, Case has demonstrated an unwavering commitment to improving patient outcomes through personalized care planning, interdisciplinary collaboration, and patient-centered education. Her work spans a wide range of healthcare environments, including acute care hospitals, dialysis centers, home healthcare, and military medical facilities.

Most recently, Case served as a Medical/Surgical Registered Nurse at Miami Valley Hospital in Dayton, Ohio, where she managed complex orthopedic and neurological cases, including pre- and post-operative spinal care. She is highly proficient in advanced clinical systems such as Epic Care and Pyxis medication management, ensuring accuracy, safety, and efficiency in patient treatment.

Previously, Case held a critical role as a Disease Manager at Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson Hospital in Anchorage, Alaska, where she worked extensively with active-duty military personnel, retirees, and their families. In this role, she specialized in managing chronic conditions such as COPD, diabetes, and hypertension, utilizing motivational interviewing techniques to empower patients and drive long-term health improvements.

Case's leadership experience includes serving as a Charge Nurse and Clinical Supervisor, where she oversaw multidisciplinary teams, mentored nursing staff, and coordinated comprehensive care across healthcare systems. Her background also includes specialized expertise in dialysis care, infection control, ventilator management, and crisis intervention, reflecting a versatile and deeply skilled clinical profile.

In addition to her clinical accomplishments, Case has contributed to healthcare education through staff training, patient advocacy, and participation in professional development programs, including nephrology symposiums and suicide prevention training.

She holds an Associate Degree in Nursing from Southern State Community College and a Bachelor of Science from Ohio University, and maintains active RN licensure in Alaska, Ohio, and multistate jurisdictions.

"Jennifer Case exemplifies the highest standards of nursing excellence," said a colleague. "Her dedication, empathy, and clinical expertise make a lasting impact on every patient and team she works with."

With a career defined by compassion, leadership, and clinical excellence, Jennifer L. Case continues to be a driving force in advancing patient-centered healthcare.
