

Kim Price: A Dedicated REALTOR® Transforming Real Estate in Placer County and the Greater Sacramento Region

Helping Clients Achieve Their Real Estate Dreams Through Professionalism and Care

Roseville, California May 18, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Kim Price, an accomplished REALTOR® with Keller Williams Realty, is leading the charge in delivering exceptional real estate services throughout Placer County and the Greater Sacramento region. With nearly 30 years of experience in the industry, Kim combines her vast knowledge of the market with a deep commitment to her clients, making her a standout choice for buyers and sellers alike.

Starting her career in multi-family property management, Kim has cultivated a thorough understanding of the complexities involved in real estate transactions. Her expertise encompasses every aspect of the buying and selling process, from strategic pricing and market positioning to skilled negotiation and seamless closings. As a member of the National Association of Realtors®, California Association of Realtors®, and the Placer County Association of Realtors®, Kim stays updated on the latest industry trends while maintaining high ethical standards.

Kim's client-centric approach is built on strong relationships, advocacy, and an unwavering commitment to achieving the best outcomes for her clients. Her combination of analytical skills, problem-solving abilities, and clear communication has earned her numerous accolades, including recognition as a Keller Williams Top Producer, Gold Award recipient, and member of the prestigious Placer County Masters Club. Kim's sellers benefit from a high-impact marketing strategy that features professional staging, high-quality photography and videography, broker tours, open houses, and personalized property websites, ensuring that each home shines in a competitive marketplace.

Having lived in Placer County since the mid-1980s, Kim has witnessed the region's growth and transformation, providing her with a unique perspective on the communities she serves. She is deeply involved in local initiatives, volunteering with organizations such as the SPCA, children's hospitals, and the American Cancer Society. This commitment to community mirrors her dedication to her clients, fostering a sense of trust and reliability.

Kim attributes her success to the strong support system around her and the collaborative culture at Keller Williams Realty, which aligns perfectly with her values of continuous growth and learning. Whether assisting first-time buyers or seasoned investors, Kim Price is dedicated to making every real estate journey exceptional and stress-free.
