New York City, New York May 4, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Kordofani Salah (Mohamed Abdalla), a Public Figure & Content Creator based in Brooklyn, New York, continues to expand his digital mission focused on immigration awareness, settlement guidance, and community support for DV Lottery winners and new immigrants in the United States.

Through his growing presence on TikTok under the username @kurdofany.salah, Kordofani Salah has built an engaged audience seeking practical and reliable information about relocation, settlement, and adapting to life in the United States.

In addition to his digital content, he is actively involved in managing and moderating WhatsApp community groups known as “The American Dream” groups. These communities serve as peer-support networks where immigrants share experiences, guidance, and practical advice related to starting life in the United States.

A key part of his mission is offering free, accessible immigration guidance and community support through digital platforms and WhatsApp groups, aimed at helping newcomers and DV Lottery winners better understand their journey and navigate life in the United States more effectively.

“I focus on sharing real experiences and practical guidance for people going through the immigration process,” said Kordofani Salah (Mohamed Abdalla). “My goal is to simplify the journey and provide free support so people can avoid common challenges when starting life in the United States.”

His content continues to grow across multiple platforms, where he is recognized for providing relatable, experience-based immigration insights and community-driven support.
