Kristen Breeden: A Community-Centric REALTOR® Committed to Southern Vermont's Buyers and Sellers

Burlington, Vermont May 14, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Kristen Breeden, a dedicated REALTOR® with Southern Vermont Realty Group, is making waves in the Southern Vermont real estate market. With a focus on providing exceptional service to buyers and sellers across the region, including Mount Snow

Resort, Stratton, and the surrounding areas of Windham and Bennington Counties, Kristen is redefining what it means to be a real estate professional.

Licensed in Vermont and equipped with esteemed designations such as Accredited Buyer's Representative (ABR), Real Estate Negotiation Expert (RENE), and Pricing Strategy Advisor (PSA), Kristen offers a comprehensive skill set that benefits her clients in every transaction. With over 17 years of experience in sales, management, and customer service within the hospitality industry, she has honed her ability to deliver outstanding service in fast-paced environments, ensuring her clients' needs are always met.

Kristen's deep-rooted commitment to her community sets her apart. Having served for three years on the planning commission for the Town of Whitingham, she played a pivotal role in developing the town plan and revising local zoning regulations. This experience provides her with invaluable insights into municipal processes, directly benefiting her clients.

When clients choose to work with Kristen, they are not just gaining a knowledgeable real estate expert; they are securing a trusted advocate who prioritizes integrity, communication, and genuine care. For sellers, Kristen excels in staging homes, preparing professional photography, and crafting personalized marketing strategies that highlight each property's unique qualities. For buyers, she emphasizes timely communication and swift action to ensure they seize every opportunity in the competitive market.

Kristen's philosophy is grounded in flexibility, empathy, and a positive, solutions-focused approach to overcoming challenges. Her commitment extends beyond real estate; she actively participates in meaningful community initiatives, volunteering with the local food bank, supporting breast cancer awareness, engaging with her son's school, and contributing to Green Up Day. She also serves on the Community Planning Committee and as a Library Trustee for the Jacksonville Public Library.

Balancing her thriving real estate career with motherhood and her work at Millie's Heritage Farm, where she raises 100% grass-fed beef, Kristen embodies the spirit of Southern Vermont living. With her unwavering dedication to her clients and community, Kristen Breeden is a REALTOR® who truly cares.
