

Luxury Resort near Jaco Beach Redefines Costa Rican Getaways

Amanti Resort sets a new benchmark for Playa Hermosa hotels and Costa Rica luxury villas by blending intimate high-end accommodations with a world-class culinary and full-bar experience just minutes away from downtown Jaco.

Jaco, Puntarenas May 25, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Amanti Resort, a premier boutique property nestled in the coastal paradise of Playa Hermosa, officially announced its elevated hospitality packages today. This milestone solidifies the property's status as a leading luxury resort near Jaco Beach, offering discerning global travelers a highly sophisticated alternative to traditional commercial lodging.

Positioned just seven minutes south of downtown Jaco, Amanti Resort bridges the gap between high-energy coastal tourism and secluded relaxation. As competition grows among Playa Hermosa hotels, Amanti differentiates itself through an intimate boutique model, premium mixology programs, and a curated culinary experience that rivals the standard of the region's finest private estates.

"Travelers seeking a premier luxury resort in Costa Rica want more than a place to sleep—they are looking for a complete sensory experience," said the Director of Hospitality at Amanti Resort. "By pairing our manicured, tranquil resort grounds with an expansive full-service bar and chef-driven dining, we provide the curated privacy often found only in elite Costa Rica luxury villas, alongside the seamless service of a world-class hotel."

The property features a distinctive architectural footprint centered around high-end amenities, tropical landscaping, and clear, resort-style pools. Its on-site restaurant serves an array of fresh, locally sourced international and Costa Rican cuisine, complemented by a fully stocked cocktail lounge. This balance of quiet luxury and strategic proximity makes it an ideal hub for exploring both the surf culture of Playa Hermosa and the nightlife of Jaco.
