

Mahanadaya CEO Shaweta Berry Honoured with Special Technology Leadership Award at NCN ICT India Partner Summit 2026

Recognised at the 18th NCN ICT India Partner Summit 2026, Mahanadaya CEO Shaweta Berry's award highlights technology marketing leadership, with the firm serving 40+ clients across 24+ industry verticals in under two years.

New Delhi, Delhi May 31, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - Mahanadaya Universal Consultancy Private Limited is proud to announce that its Founder and CEO, Ms. Shaweta Berry, has been conferred the Special Technology Leadership Award "The Technology Marketing & Thought Leadership Award 2025" at the 18th NCN ICT India Partner Summit 2026.

The recognition celebrates her contribution to technology marketing, strategic communication, thought leadership, ecosystem building, and market leadership across the ICT, EdTech, digital transformation, innovation, industry, and academic ecosystem.

The award comes at a significant milestone for Mahanadaya. In less than two years of operations, the firm has successfully partnered with 40+ clients across 24+ industry verticals, establishing itself as a trusted strategic communications and consulting partner. Through its work spanning technology, education, healthcare, social impact, energy, manufacturing, startups, government, and innovation ecosystems, Mahanadaya continues to help organizations build visibility, credibility, stakeholder trust, and market leadership.

Speaking on the occasion, Shaweta Berry said, "Awards do not just celebrate achievements. They celebrate the journey, the learning, the people, and the purpose that make the impact possible. This recognition belongs equally to our clients, partners, industry leaders, academia, and the Mahanadaya team who continue to believe in the power of meaningful communication and responsible thought leadership."

Through its integrated consulting approach, Mahanadaya has been enabling organizations to bridge the gap between innovation and adoption by creating strategic narratives, thought leadership platforms, stakeholder engagement programs, personal branding initiatives, and go-to-market communication frameworks.

The NCN ICT India Partner Summit is one of India's leading industry platforms bringing together leaders from ICT, AV, EdTech, enterprise technology, and digital innovation sectors to discuss emerging opportunities, partnerships, and market trends.

This recognition reinforces Mahanadaya's commitment to advancing technology marketing, strategic communications, thought leadership, and ecosystem-building initiatives that contribute to India's innovation and digital transformation journey.
