

Robert B. Fraser, DC: Chiropractor, Occupational Health Specialist, and CEO of Integrated Health Services, Inc. USA

Leading a Multidisciplinary Approach to Occupational Health, Rehabilitation, and Functional Recovery in South Texas

McAllen, Texas May 19, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Robert B. Fraser, DC, is a highly experienced chiropractor and occupational health specialist, and the CEO of Integrated Health Services, Inc., where he has spent more than three decades helping patients recover from injuries and regain functional independence. Based in McAllen, Texas, with a new clinic opening in Brownsville, Dr. Fraser is recognized for his expertise in workers' compensation, rehabilitation, functional medicine, and impairment evaluation.

Dr. Fraser earned his Doctor of Chiropractic Degree from Western States Chiropractic College and has dedicated his career to building a comprehensive, multidisciplinary model of care. Through Integrated Health Services, he combines chiropractic treatment, physical therapy, athletic training, psychiatric support, and rehabilitation services to provide patients with individualized care focused on recovery and safe return to work.

Over the years, Dr. Fraser has become internationally recognized for his expertise in impairment and disability assessment using the AMA Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment across multiple editions. His work includes conducting independent medical evaluations, functional capacity evaluations, job-site analyses, and pre-employment physicals for employers, attorneys, and insurance carriers.

In addition to patient care, Dr. Fraser has trained and lectured physicians throughout the country on evidence-based approaches to managing work-related injuries, regulatory compliance, and improving patient outcomes. His ability to bridge clinical care with occupational health standards has made him a respected voice in the field of workers' compensation and rehabilitation medicine.

At the core of Dr. Fraser's professional philosophy is a commitment to treating patients like family. He prioritizes ethical care, functional recovery, and long-term patient well-being above financial considerations. Known for his integrity and compassionate approach, he works to ensure every patient receives the support and guidance necessary to improve their quality of life.

Outside of clinical practice, Dr. Fraser remains deeply involved in his community through charitable giving, home renovation projects, and hands-on volunteer service. Whether inside the clinic or beyond it, his lifelong mission remains centered on helping others through practical support, compassionate care, and meaningful service.
