

Roddin' Arizona Newspaper Launches "Roddin Adz" - A New Era of Marketing for Arizona's Hot Rod Community

New hybrid advertising platform connects Arizona hot rod businesses with passionate enthusiasts through targeted print and digital marketing.

Phoenix, Arizona May 13, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Roddin' Arizona, one of Arizona's leading voices in hot rod culture, is proud to announce the launch of Roddin Adz, a powerful new advertising platform built specifically for the hot rod, classic car, custom fabrication, and automotive enthusiast industries across Arizona.

Roddin Adz combines the best of print and digital marketing into one targeted platform designed to help businesses connect directly with passionate automotive enthusiasts who live and breathe the hot rod lifestyle.

From speed shops and restoration garages to upholstery specialists, custom painters, parts suppliers, car shows, and performance brands, Roddin Adz delivers highly focused exposure to the exact audience these businesses want to reach.

"Hot rod culture isn't just a hobby in Arizona - it's a lifestyle and a community," said the team behind Roddin' Arizona. "With Roddin Adz, we wanted to create a marketing platform that truly understands this audience and gives automotive businesses a better way to reach real enthusiasts."

Unlike broad advertising platforms that target general audiences, Roddin Adz is built specifically for the Arizona custom car scene. The platform offers businesses a unique combination of:

- Print advertising opportunities
- Digital advertising campaigns
- Sponsored content and features
- Event promotion
- Social media amplification
- Brand visibility within Arizona's hot rod community
- Direct access to engaged automotive enthusiasts

The launch comes at a time when Arizona's hot rod and classic car scene continues to grow, with increasing attendance at cruise nights, shows, swap meets, and automotive events throughout the state.

Roddin Adz aims to become the go-to marketing solution for businesses that want authentic visibility within the custom automotive world - not just generic impressions, but real connections with enthusiasts, builders, and buyers.
