Tammy Shepard: Your Trusted Real Estate Expert in the Straits of Mackinac Region

Chesterfield, Michigan May 18, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - Tammy Shepard, a seasoned Real Estate Broker with a remarkable career that has spanned nearly three decades, is part of the professional team at Mackinac Properties, Inc. Based in Saint Ignace, Michigan, Tammy has been dedicated to serving buyers and sellers throughout the Straits of Mackinac region since 2010. Her extensive background and commitment to her clients make her a standout in the real estate market.

Beginning her career in 1996, Tammy holds active real estate licenses in Michigan, Nevada, and Virginia, showcasing her versatility and expertise across various markets. With a Degree in Interior Design from Brooks College, she possesses a unique skill set that enhances her ability to assist clients in evaluating properties and preparing homes for sale. Tammy's professional designations, including GRI (Graduate, Realtor Institute), ABR (Accredited Buyer's Representative), e-PRO®, CCS (Certified Commercial Specialist), and CRS (Certified Residential Specialist), further attest to her commitment to excellence in the real estate industry.

Tammy's approach to real estate is deeply rooted in her genuine commitment to her clients. She guides them through every step of the process, from negotiations to contract execution, always prioritizing their best interests. Her philosophy is simple: the client is the captain, and her role is to educate, guide, and set clear expectations. This client-first mentality has resulted in numerous satisfied clients and successful transactions.

A true asset to the Saint Ignace community, Tammy's connection runs deep. Although she was raised in Lake Tahoe, Nevada, her husband Paul's local roots inspired them to settle down in the area to raise their family. This personal investment in the community is reflected in her civic involvement, including her service on the Saint Ignace City Council and Recreation Board. Tammy is not just a real estate professional; she is an advocate for the region she proudly calls home.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Tammy is an avid skier and enjoys the outdoor lifestyle that the Straits of Mackinac region offers. Whether on the slopes or exploring the waters, her passion for the area enriches her ability to assist clients in finding their dream homes amidst the breathtaking landscapes.
