Denver, Colorado Jun 17, 2026 (IssueWire.com) - When disaster strikes a home or business, time is everything. RestoPros of East Denver, a locally owned and operated property restoration company, is proud to announce its full suite of 24/7 emergency restoration services available to residents and businesses throughout East Denver and the surrounding areas. Specializing in water damage, fire damage, storm damage, and mold remediation, RestoPros of East Denver is setting a new standard for professional, compassionate, and fully certified property restoration in the region.

About RestoPros of East Denver - RestoPros of East Denver is more than a restoration company — it is a trusted community partner. As a locally owned business, the company understands the unique challenges that Denver-area property owners face when unexpected damage strikes. From the first emergency call to the final restoration step, the team is committed to standing by property owners every step of the way. The company's certified team of experts brings industry-leading knowledge, state-of-the-art equipment, and a genuinely people-first approach to every project. Whether it is a flooded basement in the middle of the night or fire damage discovered on a weekend morning, RestoPros of East Denver answers the call — 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days a year.

Comprehensive Restoration Services - RestoPros of East Denver provides a full range of property damage restoration services, including:

Water Damage Restoration - Water damage can escalate rapidly, leading to structural deterioration and hazardous mold growth within as little as 24 to 48 hours. The RestoPros team deploys industrial-grade extraction equipment, air movers, and dehumidifiers to remove moisture quickly and thoroughly, protecting the long-term integrity of the property.

Fire and Smoke Damage Restoration - Fire leaves behind devastating structural damage, soot, and persistent smoke odors. RestoPros of East Denver provides comprehensive fire and smoke damage restoration, from debris removal and structural repairs to odor elimination and air purification, restoring the property and the peace of mind of those who live or work in it.

Storm Damage Restoration - Colorado's severe weather can cause significant damage in a matter of minutes. RestoPros of East Denver responds immediately to storm damage emergencies, providing emergency board-ups, tarping, debris removal, and full structural restoration to secure and repair affected properties as quickly as possible.

Mold Remediation - Mold growth poses serious health risks to occupants and can compromise the structural integrity of a building. The certified mold remediation specialists at RestoPros of East Denver conduct thorough inspections, containment, removal, and prevention treatments, ensuring properties are safe, clean, and mold-free.

Insurance Advocacy: Fighting for the Property Owner - One of the most stressful aspects of property damage is navigating the insurance claims process. RestoPros of East Denver removes that burden by working directly with the property owner's insurance company on their behalf. The team advocates for the homeowner or business owner throughout the entire claims process, answering questions, providing documentation, and ensuring that the property owner receives the full scope of coverage they are entitled to.

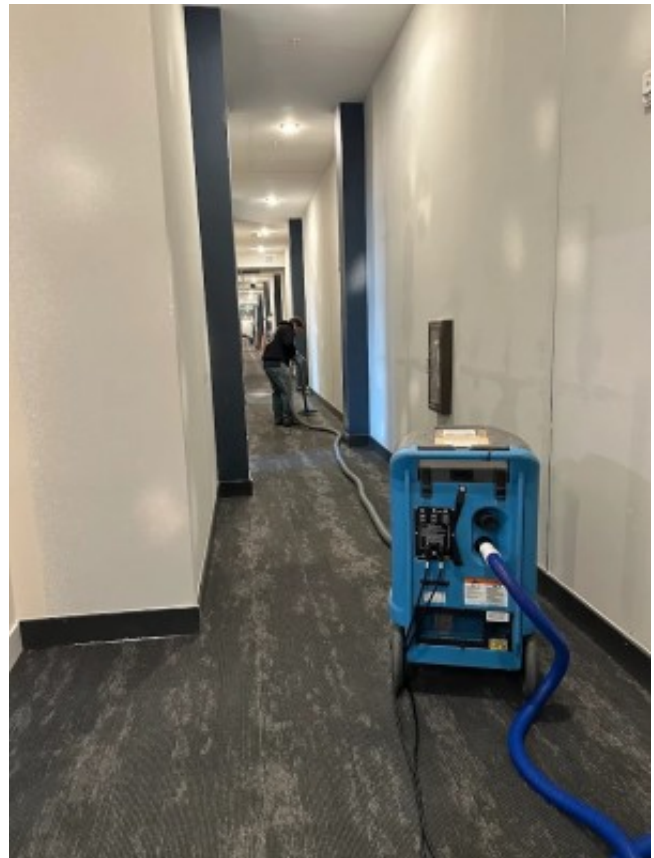

"Property damage is stressful, and you deserve a team that puts your needs first," said a spokesperson for RestoPros of East Denver. "We are on your side from the very first call — not just as restoration professionals, but as your advocates throughout every step of the process."

Certified Experts, Local Commitment - The team at RestoPros of East Denver holds industry-recognized certifications and undergoes ongoing training to stay at the forefront of restoration techniques and safety standards. As a locally owned company, they take immense pride in serving their neighbors across East Denver, Aurora, and the surrounding communities. Their commitment goes beyond simply repairing property — it is about restoring normalcy and confidence for the families and business owners they serve.

Free Inspections Available — Call Anytime - RestoPros of East Denver is currently offering free property inspections to homeowners and business owners who suspect damage or simply want peace of mind. There is no obligation, and the inspection is conducted by a certified professional who will provide an honest assessment and clear guidance on next steps.

Property owners in East Denver and surrounding areas are encouraged to call 303-335-0125 or visit <https://www.restopros.co/co-denver-aurora/> to schedule a free inspection or to report an emergency requiring immediate response.
