

AIKissfiy Introduces Suite of AI Love Tests to Explore Relationship Compatibility

Swains Island, American Samoa Jun 30, 2026 (Issuewire.com) - AIKissfiy, a couples and relationships creative platform, has officially introduced a collection of interactive love tests. From moon phase readings to face similarity checks, each tool gives couples a lighthearted way to explore their connection.

This upgrade turns curiosity into fun, shareable moments, adding a playful new dimension to modern relationship exploration.

Highlights of AIKissfiy

The highlights of this upgrade include:

Moon Phase Soulmate Test

AIKissfiy's Moon Phase Soulmate Test helps users explore relationship compatibility through lunar astrology. Users simply enter their own and their partner's birthdate, and the system analyzes the connection without requiring any knowledge of astrology charts. The result is a compatibility percentage between 0% and 100%, paired with a plain-language explanation of what the score means. Users also learn how their moon phase influences attraction, emotional rhythm, and day-to-day relationship dynamics.

AI Couple Face Similarity Checker

The AI Couple Face Similarity Checker compares two uploaded photos using advanced AI to calculate how closely two people's faces resemble each other. It works as a natural conversation starter after a first date, and just as well for couples looking to add a little spark to a relationship that's settled into routine. Results are easy to share on social media.

Zodiac Compatibility Calculator

The Zodiac Compatibility Calculator lets users enter two birthdates and receive scores across love, communication, trust, and emotional compatibility. Some sun signs naturally complement each other, while others require more effort and understanding to build a strong bond. The tool gives couples a clear, personalized snapshot of where their relationship stands and what to work on together.

Love Calculator by Name

The Love Calculator by Name calculates romantic compatibility based on two people's names alone. There are no birthdates or zodiac signs to look up. Users simply type in two names and get their match result instantly. The tool is designed for entertainment, early-stage crushes, couple games, and moments worth sharing online.

AI Baby Generator

The AI Baby Generator allows users to upload two photos and generate a realistic preview of what their future child could look like. Couples can choose preferences such as a boy or a girl and explore different life stages, from baby to child to teenager. It offers a creative and emotional way for couples to imagine and visualize their future family together.
